Wayne State College

New programs – Engineering Technology, Integrated Technology Support, and Journalism & Media Education Endorsement. They are also offering a 3+2 Masters in Athletic Training.

Starting in 2020, they will be offering Esports (gaming) as a club sport and Women's Beach Volleyball will be a NCAA Division 11 sport at Wayne State.

University of NE-Kearney

Has a co-enrollment agreement with Central Community College. The CCC-UNK Pathway is to help applicants, who would otherwise be denied admission, meet UNK admission requirements. Pathway students will have benefits, privileges and access to UNK student services, amenities and organizations, and can live on campus while taking most of their classes at CCC. The one-year Pathway leads to a student having the option to fully enroll at UNK to begin their second year, after successful program completion.

Chadron State College

Has 15 full tuition scholarships available through the Rural Business Leadership Initiative (RBLI). The purpose is to prepare students pursuing careers in Accounting (CPA path) and Agribusiness (banking) in the High Plains region, specifically rural Nebraska, and to help graduates of the RBLI assume leadership roles within rural communities. No Minimum ACT/SAT score but must have at least a high school GPA of 3.0.
